

2018 States Budget Transparency Index Rankings

The States Budget Transparency Index (BTI) is Nigeria's only independent, comparative measure of states budget transparency. The 36 states are evaluated to see how much budget information is provided, spaces and mechanisms for public participation throughout the budget process, and how robust and transparent the procurement process is in the states. The Index assigns a numerical value between 0 and 100 with higher values denoting greater transparency

